First Published in 1949

Collotype Facsimiles by the Chiswick Press, London

Made in Great Britain

No original entrance of Ro found in the Stationers' Re appeared as 'Printed by Iob 1597. Two years later it was Quarto' 'Printed by Thom Burby' here reproduced. superior text, which was alteration in the Folio. It duplications that suggest tha speare's autograph before t reduced to final shape. A bibliographical links (the mo of italic in some of the ear point to occasional dependen

Of the Second Quarto th viz. British Museum (C. 12. g Library (Malone), Edinburgh Gorhambury (now on deposi of Congress (Locker Lam Shakespeare Library (Kemble ditto (Steevens-Warwick: wa Howe: imperfect), Harvard White), Huntington Library Club, Yale University (S Huth), A. S. W. Rosenbach facsimile has been made fro of the University of Edinbu Library Committee and the Dr. L. W. Sharp.

As usual the standard act a indicated in the margin toge of the Globe edition (1891). follow the Second Quarto numbering generally corresp sages and some verse pass prose (chiefly the Queen M